

code of conduct

Members of the Board of Directors and Volunteers supporting them agree:

- To act in the best interests of, and fulfill their obligations to the organization and its constituents and members;
- To act honestly, fairly, ethically and with integrity;
- To conduct themselves in a professional, courteous and respectful manner;
- To comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations;
- To act in good faith, responsibly, with due care, competence and diligence, without allowing their independent judgement to be subordinated;
- To act in a manner to enhance and maintain the reputation of the organization;
- To disclose potential conflicts of interest that they may have regarding any matters that may come before the Board, and abstain from discussion and voting on any matter, in which the director has or may have a conflict of interest;
- To make available to and share with directors any information that may be appropriate to ensure proper conduct and sound operation of the organization's governance and management;
- To respect the confidentiality of information relating to the affairs of the organization acquired in the course of service, except when authorized or legally required to disclose such information;
- To not use information acquired in the course of service for personal advantage or disservice to the organization;
- To not violate any federal, state or local laws governing the organization and to understand and adhere with all governing documents applicable to the organization.

A person who has concerns regarding compliance with the AAF Code of Conduct should raise those concerns with the AAF Vice President of Club Services.

Presidents will annually sign this document as confirmation they have read and agree to comply with this Code.
